

Lamar Usher (Lighting Assistant) Lamar is a Lighting Designer, Entertainer, Photographer and proud member of the Towne Street Theatre Company. He was born and raised in South Central Los Angeles. He recently earned his Bachelors of arts degree from USC School of Dramatic Arts. His most recent television appearance was a recurring role on the CW network show Containment as the character JoJo. Now, Lamar is currently training to be a Creative Artist Leader to work with inner city youth after school and teacher them about the power of Theatre.