

Veronica Thompson (Associate Producer, Company Manager, Director and Actress) is a proud 20 year member of Towne Street Theatre. A native of Brooklyn, N.Y., she is an Acting coach and received a Masters of Fine Arts degree in Acting from New York University Tisch School of the Arts. She has performed in several TST productions such as Nevis Mountain Dew, Joleta, Five on the Blackhand Side, The Phonograph and numerous 10 minute play festivals. Veronica is a 3 time NAACP Theatre award nominee and was last seen as Moordenaar in TST's production of Lion's Share written by Professor Ken Cosby and directed by her "bestie", Nancy Davis-Bellamy. Aside from her artistic endeavors, she holds a California State administrative credential and has just recently retired as Magnet Coordinator for LA Unified School District.